Cyprus : Almyra Hotel chooses APart for its exclusive spa.

Thanos hotels are a company comprising three luxury hotels. Following an extensive two-year refurbishment program, the group has relaunched the old Paphos Beach Hotel as Almyra. The hotel is at walking distance of the Paphos castle and close to the house of Dionysos with its stunning mosaics. At the total investment cost of CYP 3.000.000, the works have brought the property in line with family-run group's five star standards.

With 3 restaurants, 2 pools and a total of 189 rooms, Almyra features 3 types of accommodation ranging from garden view rooms to seafront suites with private terraces. All rooms have custom-designed furniture.

The Almyra hotel opened its spa in the summer of 2008. Set within landscaped gardens with views across the sea, it reflects the contemporary style and affordable chic that characterizes the hotel. Following the style concept of Paris interior designer Joëlle Pléot, all furniture is custom made, while the fabrics and color scheme to echo the tones and clean lines of the hotel.

Using natural raw materials, fresh plant extracts and cold-pressed plant oils, the spa's philosophy is to create a holistic approach through health, beauty and fitness.

The exclusive distributor for APart in Cyprus was awarded the contract for the spa's audio system. They fitted the building with a matrix system of four zones

1. Public areas
2. Restaurant and veranda
